

NORTH READING HITTING SCHOOL

Dear Parents,

The North Reading Hitting School is about to begin another season. Our intentions are to review the hitting concepts with each player and possibly correct one or two poor mechanics prior to the start of their season. In order to combine quality instruction with individual attention, a maximum of 20 players per session will be accepted (10 per instructor). The instructors will be local high school and college coaches; plus members of the Varsity baseball team will serve as counselors. I expect that all sessions will be filled to capacity as last year. On January 5 it will be advertised to the public. Due to the demand for the same sessions, please indicate 1st, 2nd, and 3rd preference. Every effort will be made to accommodate you. I will notify you of your placement by mail.

Sincerely,

Frank Carey, 2007 A.B.C.A. National High School Coach of the Year
